Heart

A modern interior space showcasing Venetian plaster. The walls are finished with a light-colored, textured plaster. A white floating desk is mounted on the wall, featuring a glass top and a wooden base. A large window on the right side of the room is adorned with a geometric chandelier made of black metal rods and black conical shades. A framed abstract painting with white and blue tones is mounted on the wall below the window. In the background, a television is mounted on the wall, and a potted plant is visible near a window with white curtains. A staircase with a black handrail is visible in the foreground.

An elegant choice to elevate interiors, The Venetian Plaster Collection marries ancient craftsmanship and cutting-edge design. This sublime plaster finish harks back to ancient Rome, using the artisan technique of stuccoed walls to create a myriad of textures, looks and moods. Perfected by hand and smooth and cool to touch, this unique plaster is akin to a work of art. With finishes including satin, matt and metallic, and styles ranging from industrial, through to classic and organic, the luxurious Venetian Plaster Collection invites your style and imagination to flourish.
